ALPINE
► visitalpinetx.com
In southwest Texas, Alpine is connected by the most scenic routes in the state. Check out the stunning murals painted throughout the town or visit one of the many national and state parks close by.

FREDERICKSBURG
► visitfredericksburgtx.com
This town contains the beauty of the Texas Hill Country. This is a great area for camping, there are abundant wildflower viewing opportunities, wineries, spas and multiple festivals throughout the year.

MARBLE FALLS
► visitmarblefalls.org
Texas town in the heart of the Hill Country. The downtown district offers many opportunities to shop and dine at independent shops. There is something for everyone here from water activities to wineries.

MARFA
► visitmarfa.com
Located in the high desert planes of the Trans-Pecos region, Marfa is a peaceful desert far from the hustle-bustle of the city. Visit museums, explore the vibrant art scene, enjoy an afternoon of window shopping and end the night star gazing.

NEW BRAUNFELS
► playinnewbraunfels.com
Located between San Antonio and Austin in the stunning Texas Hill Country. Exciting live music scene and home to the oldest dance hall in Texas, Gruene Hall. The Guadalupe and Comal Rivers are integral to the town and offers plenty of recreational activities to keep you busy.

SALADO
► visitsaladotexas.com
The Village of Salado is centrally located in Texas and it has long attracted artists and art enthusiasts. There are plenty of eclectic shops and local art viewing opportunities. Spend the day catching live music, picnicking at Pace Park or Salado Gardens and enjoy some local craft beer.

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND
► sopadris.com
Texas coast town along the Gulf of Mexico. There are fun experiences available for the whole family. Go seashell hunting, ride along the beach on horseback, enjoy fresh seafood and take advantage of the many water sports available.

WACO
► wacoheartoftexas.com
This central Texas town is overflowing with things to do. Take the Muggsella Trail, visit the Cameron Park Zoo and visit the many museums, including the Dr. Pepper Museum.
